THE HOME CIRCLE AND ITS INTERESTS.

Column Dedicated to Tired Mothers as They Join
The Home Circle at Evening Tide.

Old people have faults like children, but they have no mothers to forgive them.

Don't find all your "good people" among the departed but seek to discover a few among the living. It will make you and the world happier to get into the habit.

Boys, you have but one mother; care for her and spare her. She is not a beast of burden to drive along the highway of life. There is no love like your mother's love; you may not know it now, but you will some day.

Man may go through all the world, he may run through every stage of belief and disbelief, but there will be one picture that he cannot efface. Living or dying, there will rise up before him like a morning star the beauty of that remembered goodness which he called

"mother."

For a good, everyday household angel give us a woman who laughs. Her hiccups may not always be just right, and she may occasionally burn her bread and forget to replace dislocated buttons, but for solid comfort all day and every day she is a very paragon.
Home is not a battlefield, nor life one unending row.

Flirting may seem to the giddy and thoughtless girl wonderfully amusing and she may get the idea that she is fascinating, but it is a most degrading thing and she should be frowned upon by every young lady who has an ambition to become a worthy and charming young woman.

Those who habitually correct their children in their faults by whipping and boxing them, must not be surprised when they find them slapping them in return, and rough and abusive towards one another. They are simply trying to enforce their own little ideas of right as they have seen their elders do.

Our habits are formed under the moulding power of home. The tender twig is there bent, the spirit shaped principles implanted and the whole character is formed until it becomes a habit. The gray haired father who walks in the second infancy, feels the traces of his childhood home in his spirit, desires and habits.

The need of some place to drop down for a moment and forget things is a cry of the soul in most homes. There ought to be enough sofas around to accommodate all the family. Five minutes rest will prevent many a family row, and how can you get rest if you have to pull shams off the bed and roll up the overlid. A shabby old lounge, where you can get at it is worth its weight in gold; and you won't want to die half so many times if you make use of it.

Get the whine out of your voice or it will stop the development and growth of your body. It will narrow and shrink your mind. It will drive away your friends; it will make you unpopular.
Quit your whining; brace up; go to work; be something; stand for something; fill your place in the world. Instead of whining around exciting only pity and contempt, face about and make something of yourself. Reach up to the stature of a strong, ennobling manhood to the beauty and strength of a superb womanhood. There is nothing the matter with you. Just quit your whining and go to work.

No public speaker, be he preacher or political orator, can draw an audience of one-tenth that which erects the average newspaper today, and thus the tone of the press becomes a matter of vital importance to the welfare of the community. The influence is wide spread and is also lasting. Therefore we say, study well the contents of the paper you are taking and if it contains that which tends to lower the scale of morality and humanity and not to the elevation of that which is good and right, better off are you by far without it.

We think home love is the best. The love that you are born to is the sweetest that you will ever have on earth.
You, who are anxious to escape from the home nest, pause a moment and remember that this is so. It is right that the hour should come when you in your time should become a wife and mother and give the best love to others, but that will be just it. Nobody, not a lover, not a husband, will ever be so tender or so true as your father or mother. Never again after strangers have broken the beautiful bond, will there be anything so sweet as the little home circle of mother, father and children, where you were cherished, praised, protected and kept from harm.

Praise the work of your children, no matter how trivial the act. It will give them an honest desire to do better next time.

Have a bright bouquet of flowers in each room of your home to cheer and brighten it and its inmates.

Keep the rooms sweet and pure by ventilation. For this reason, air and sunshine are free.
